

The Association of Lawyers for Animal Welfare

Presents

Criminal law

Punishing cruelty, deterring activism?

Tuesday, 21st November 2006

Doughty Street Chambers, 10-11 Doughty Street, London WC1N 2PL

6pm – 8.30pm

Legislation and animals rights activism

Tim Greene, solicitor, highlights recent developments specifically targeted at activists and other criminal law provisions which impact, directly or indirectly, upon protestors and animal rights activists.

Prosecutions in respect of animal cruelty

Sally Case, Head of Prosecutions, RSPCA discusses the Society's prosecutions strategy and examines recent prosecutions for cruelty and case law in this area.

2 CPD points

I wish to reserve place(s) at the ALAW seminar to be held on 21st November 2006

Delegate Name(s)

Firm:

Address/DX:

Tel No:

Please return this form to Paula Sparks, ALAW, 30 Hemington Avenue, London N11 3LR or RSVP by email to info@alaw.org.uk