

Course Programme

We are a new organisation and this is our first course: this is the information we have to date:

Law at the cutting-edge: animal protection issues for the 21st century.

Monday, 27 June, 2005, Doughty Street Chambers, 10-11 Doughty Street, London WC1N 2PL

6.30pm – Welcome by Chair – Paula Sparks

6.35pm – Introduction to the work and plans of ALAW and a history of the role of lawyers in animal protection – David Thomas

7.00pm – Suggestions for ways that members of the legal profession can become more involved in animal protection and the environment at various levels – Simon Cox

7.20pm – The Animal Welfare Bill – Speaker from Defra

7.40pm – Farm animal welfare legislation – Paul Hook

7.50pm – Legislation and the fur industry

8.00pm – Open Forum