

Association of Lawyers for Animal Welfare

Law at the cutting-edge: animal protection issues for the 21st century

Monday, 27 June, 6.30 – 8.30pm

Doughty Street Chambers, 10-11 Doughty Street, London WC1N 2PL

Speakers:

David Thomas

Solicitor – Bindman & Partners, Chair – RSPCA, ALAW director

Simon Cox

Barrister – Doughty Street Chambers

Paul Hook

Compassion in World Farming – Farm Animal Welfare Legislation

Mark Glover

Respect for Animals – Legislation and the Fur Industry

Chloe Nash

Barrister - Defra - Animal Welfare Bill

This seminar, marking the launch of the Association of Lawyers for Animal Welfare, will open with an introduction to the work and plans of the association and will suggest ways that members of the legal profession can become more involved in animal protection at various levels.

Free entry – Refreshments – CPD points available

Visit www.alaw.org.uk for further information