

The Association of Lawyers for Animal Welfare presents a special 3-hour workshop/seminar for researchers, campaigns officers and activists on

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND ANIMALS

Facilitated by barristers-at-law:

Alan Bates of Monckton Chambers

*Simon Cox
of Doughty Street Chambers*

Topics covered will include:

- What the FOI Act says and how it can help you
- Drafting an effective Freedom of Information Act request
- Challenging public bodies who give you the brush-off
- Complaining to the Information Commissioner
- Taking a case to the Information Tribunal
- Examples of how the Act can help in specific contexts: vivisection, local authorities, hunting and planning

In London on Monday 24th July 2006, 2:30 – 6:00 p.m. at doughty street chambers

10-11 Doughty Street, London WC1N 2PL

Registration fee: £50 per delegate (all proceeds go to ALAW)
CPD points - 3 hours - Refreshments

To reserve a place, or for further information, please contact:
Anne Wignall, ALAW, PO Box 67, Ellesmere, Shropshire SY12 9WZ
Tel: 01691 622444 Email: annewignall@alaw.org.uk

Registered Charity number: 1113462; Company limited by guarantee (Registered in England No: 5307802).
Registered office: Springfield, Rookery Hill, Ashted Park, Ashted, Surrey, KT21 1HY